

Statement of participation

Nick Hood

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Getting started on classical Latin

This 10-hour free course provides a taster of the very early stages of learning Latin and offers the opportunity to put in some early practice.

Issue date: 27 May 2019

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/history-the-arts/getting-started-on-classical-latin/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: A276_2

Getting started on classical Latin

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/history-the-arts/getting-started-on-classical-latin/content-section-0>

Course summary

This free course, Getting started on classical Latin, has been developed in response to requests from learners who had had no contact with Latin before and who felt they would like to spend a little time preparing for the kind of learning that studying a classical language involves. The course will give you a taster of what is involved in the very early stages of learning Latin and will offer you the opportunity to put in some early practice.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- understand some of the main links between English and Latin
- pronounce Latin words confidently
- have an understanding of basic English grammar in order to recognise and describe the way languages work
- unravel basic Latin sentences.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Learning Latin: study techniques

Section 2

Links between English and Latin

Section 3

The pronunciation of Latin

Section 4

Introducing grammar

Section 5

Reading Latin: working with words and sentences

Section 6

Conclusion